

Daniel L. Hightower, AIA

Programming and Planning Director

Registered Architect: Maryland, Virginia 1990

Dan has a full spectrum of experiences ranging from designing and building infrastructure systems to designing and building healthcare and research facilities, to operations of campus facilities. He has worked as an engineer and architect at all levels within the Federal Government.

Dan is the recipient of numerous awards from the US Public Health Service and National Institute of Health. He has been recognized for his work on numerous publications including the AIA Guidelines for Design & Construction of Healthcare Facilities and Guidelines for Bio-Medical Research Laboratories, as well as publications such as the National Academy of Sciences Laboratory Design and Construction document.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Engineering Technology, 1971

Pittsburg State University

Master of Science in Architectural Engineering, 1974

University of Kansas