

DOUGLAS S. CAMPBELL, M.D., M.P.H.

EDUCATION:

University of North Carolina: School of Public Health

Chapel Hill, North Carolina

M.P.H. (Epidemiology) 1985

University of Hawaii: John A. Burns School of Medicine

Honolulu, Hawaii

M. D. 1977

Carleton College

Northfield, Minnesota

B. A. 1968 Biology

POST GRADUATE TRAINING:

1991-92 Duke University

Durham, North Carolina

Department of Occupational and Environmental Medicine

Residency: Occupational and Environmental Medicine

1981-83 Charity Hospital of New Orleans, Louisiana: LSU Division

Department of Internal Medicine

Residency: Internal Medicine

1977-78 Charity Hospital of New Orleans, Louisiana: LSU Division

Department of Internal Medicine

Internship: Internal Medicine

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

2002-08 Branch Head, North Carolina Occupational and Environmental

Epidemiology Branch. Oversees 46 person state agency that evaluates hazards in the work setting and in the environment. This branch has several functions including epidemiologic research, risk assessment, rabies control, industrial hygiene evaluation and control, and monitoring of asbestos and lead abatement projects.

1994-2008 Environmental & Occupational Medicine Consultants, P.A. (EOMC)

Durham, North Carolina

President

Consultant to business, government, and individuals. Activities include: evaluation of medical problems in workplace and from exposures to environmental agents including chemical, infectious (and zoonotic) agents; medical problems of individuals and groups of persons are evaluated to promote health and prevent illness; epidemiologic studies and disease cluster investigations are conducted; individual patients are evaluated and treated in the workplace or in an outpatient setting. Since 2002 this has been on a part-time basis.

1992- 93 Health and Hygiene, Inc., Greensboro, N.C.

Occupational Medicine Physician Consultant

Duties and responsibilities included assisting corporations in managing their health care needs, including case reviews, preventive measures, response to health problems in employees, analysis of historical health problems to recommend future response. Was medical director of a major corporation; epidemiologic study of influenza vaccination in healthy worker group; epidemiologic analysis of two dermatitis outbreaks in the workplace; analysis and recommendations for response to toxicological and environmentally caused health problems; clinical care of patients.

1986-90 Environmental Epidemiology Section

N. C. Department of Environment, Health, and Natural Resources

Raleigh, N.C.

Physician Epidemiologist

Duties included analysis and response to health problems related to environmental and occupational factors.

1981-2000 Part-time work as emergency room physician in several emergency rooms (LA and NC)

1979-1981 Centers for Disease Control - Atlanta, Georgia

Epidemic Intelligence Service Officer

Duties included epidemiologic analysis and response to outbreaks of infectious diseases in New York State; in charge of disease prevention and outbreak control at Winter Olympics, 1980.

1978-1979 Charity Hospital of New Orleans, Louisiana

Emergency Room Physician